

Kaci Brown

Beautiful Balladeer!

Kaci Brown swept audiences away with her hum-worthy ballad "Unbelievable" when she toured with Backstreet Boys and The Click Five last summer. "I don't think I chose music, I think it chose me," the Sulphur Springs, TX, native says. Her debut Interscope album Instigator demonstrates her natural talent and range in everything from soul to pop to R&B, plus just a tad of her country roots. "I was a country girl from the South," she declares. In fact, she was even crowned "Little Miss Texas Grand Talent" when she was only 10! Kaci signed her record deal when she was 13, and now at 17 she's clear on her future: "I just want to do this for the rest of my life!"
